

Edexcel Politics Module and Revision Guide

Component 2 – UK Government 2021/22

Overview

This Module and Revision Guide has been written for students studying Edexcel's A-Level Politics qualification. This guide is for Component 2: UK Government.

This Module and Revision Guide has been produced for the Politicsteaching Website (www.policsteaching.com) and is available for free to anyone that it is of use to.

This guide is not guaranteed to be a fully comprehensive guide. It has been made to complement other resources including:

- The notes that students have made across their studies.
- Resources given to students by their classroom teachers.
- The textbooks students have been given.

Copyright Disclaimer

The author of this Module and Revision Guide has used a variety of resources to produce it. The author makes no claims whatsoever to originality.

However, care has been taken to avoid any infringement of copyright. Should there be any concerns that copyright has been infringed please email politicsteaching@gmail.com and this will be immediately remedied.

How to use this guide

The aim of this Module Revision Guide is to include as much information as possible to help you in your exams.

Within this guide, you will find the following sections:

| |
|----------------------------|
| Examples Box |
| Mnemonic Box |
| Constitutional Scholar Box |
| Additional Knowledge Box |
| Be Carefull Box |
| Summary Box |

At the end of the Guide you will find a Course Glossary. This includes all the terms that students should know from the module. The first time a word is used in the Module Revision Guide that is in the Glossary it will be coloured blue.